● Only 5 fully funded scholarships available – Apply now and secure your seat among tomorrow's wealth leaders.

Financial conditions

The cost of the course will be covered by the Luxembourg Government without any contribution from the participants.

However, all costs related to the trip to and stay in Luxembourg are to be paid by the participants, who are responsible for booking their flights, accommodation and for organizing their meals.

Please refer to the Financial Conditions document attached to this invitation for more details.

Who can apply?

Professionals who:

- ✓ are citizens and/or residents of one of the ATTF partner countries;
- ✓ fit the target audience;
- ✓ are motivated to deepen their knowledge in the field and committed to take the 4-hour e-learning before coming to Luxembourg and to take the 3-hour onsite exam at the end of the course.

Target audience

The training programme is designed for participants who already possess a basic knowledge of financial concepts and are willing to pro-actively bring their knowledge to a professional level. Targeted participants are junior as well as senior personal and private bankers, Family Offices' staff, compliance and risk management staff who require a global financial knowledge refresh or upgrade and any person having already worked in a financial environment and wishing to acquire a more comprehensive understanding of wealth management or intending to re-focus their career in private banking.

The seminar, the e-learning and the exam will be conducted in English without any translation. Therefore, a very good knowledge of English is essential to ensure all participants maximise their benefit from the course and enhance the chances to pass the exam.

Examination

The course includes a 3-hour written examination, based on all covered topics.

The required passing rate is 60%.

Participants who will successfully complete the examination will receive the certificate of completion "CERTIFIED PRIVATE BANKER" co-signed by the Luxembourg Bankers' Association (ABBL).
